

Peter Sushitski visited Jewish cemetery in Bitola

03 October 2009

Several guests at the festival this Festival of Jewish origin who have visited the Jewish cemetery in the settlement Ushici "in Bitola.

Nobody even imagined that the famous Peter Sushitski be found in the Jewish cemetery in Bitola, where the Jewish symbolic act stavenje a pebble on one of the marble slabs, will express the respect for deceased Jews in Bitola from the 15th century, and until last century .

The delegation of Jews from this Festival despite comprising Sushitski and even a few who expressed a desire to come here. They walk through the Jewish cemetery led Dimce Minovski, president of the Macedonian-Jewish Friendship Society.

Doalenot of Bitola Macedonia and sports journalism, Dimce Minovski to tell the sad story of Bitola Jews from their arrival in Bitola, from 15th century Spain, until their deportation in the Second World War.

Besides Minovski in place to place teaching and Desanovski artist who despite their present place of some of his work dedicated to the Jews and told some data that are very interested guests.

They visited two memorial rooms of Bitola Jews who are in the portal of Jewish cemeteries, and then made a tour of the cemetery, where they tried the old records to find some surname that will connect with their origin. Does managed to find something with zaedichko Bitola Jews do not say.

They were disappointed by it in any condition to the cemetery, but Minovski told that until now no one intervened in the repair of this complex, but the situation is like it is because there are many wars that led left trace and Jewish cemeteries.

Text and photo: Saso Ristevski

